World-renowned Master Teachers of Argentine Tango, Guillermina Quiroga and Roberto Reis have not visited Los Angeles as a couple since the 1990's, when they performed with Forever Tango, The Hollywood Bowl and at the Universal Amphitheatre. They were also principal dancers with the Orchestra of Mariano Mores and toured for three years with Julio Iglesias. This is the first time Guillermina and Roberto will be teaching together in Los Angeles.

Over his extensive career, Roberto has participated in some of the most prestigious tango shows in more than 45 countries. He began his professional dancing career in 1981 and started Tango in 1988 with Juan Carlos Copes.
